Trade Board Directors Have Meeting

The board of directors of the Andover Board of Trade met Wednesday morning to make plans for the approaching 1964-65 business year.

The meeting was devoted for the most part to a discussion by Gordon Brigham and Ted Hardy, consultants for the Andover Planning Board, on aspects of the study they are now making for the town.

Two of the major points which they brought out to the Trade Board directors was the possible com-

SELECTMEN INVOKE GOD'S GUIDANCE

Prayer may have gone out of the public school classrooms, but it was put into the Selectmen's meeting Monday night.

Chairman Philip K. Allen announced at the outset of the session that an invocation and pledge to the flag would open future meetings of the board.

Selectman Robert A. Waters gave the invocation and called for divine guidance for the members in their deliberations.

The board and all present then joined in the flag pledge.

DID NYLON STOCKINGS
COST LESS
WHEN MOM WAS A GIRL?

Any woman knows better. A generation ago Nylon hose hadn't been invented. You couldn't buy them at any price.

The same is true of today's medicines. It isn't logical to say, "Prescriptions cost more than they used to." Most of today's drugs weren't available at any price 10 or 20 years ago. In fact, three quarters of the prescriptions written today, are for drugs that didn't exist ten years ago.

Pontifical Mass, Reception Honor Notre Dame Sisters

The 50th anniversary of the coming to Andover of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur and the establishment of St. Augustine's parochial school will be marked by a parish observance on Sept. 10. On that date, a solemn Pontifical Mass will be celebrated at 8 p.m. by Bishop Patrick Dalton, U.S.A. A reception will follow in the school hall with the serving of refreshments.

Rev. Francis X. N. McGuire, U.S.A., pastor, Sister Owen Marie, U.S.A., Superior, and members of the committee are anxious that as many as possible of the school's graduates attend the event.

The committee is made up of two members of each class, with Mrs. Rose MacCartney McInnis and James B. Doherty serving as co-chairmen.

Notices have been sent out by the committee asking each class member to indicate whether or not they can attend. Graduates should send their names to the committee at the parish office.

Reports of breaks at two locations in Andover were reported to police on Monday.

Atty. Bernard Tay, 8 Kensington st., returned home from a vacation and found that the glass in a rear door had been broken in order to open the door from the inside.

The family was unable to determine when the break was made or whether or not anything had been stolen.

Dr. Morris Yorshis, 158 Main st., told police a window screen had been cut to gain entry to his home and office. He said he did not know if anything had been taken.

Selectmen's Meeting

At Monday night's selectmen's meeting, a letter was read from Francis P. Driscoll, director of Civil Defense Sector 1E regarding the availability of a six by six truck for use in the Andover fire department.

Driscoll said that no such vehicle is available at this time in the Surplus Property program, but promised to keep the town in mind if one should become available.

By a 3-2 vote, the board agreed to allow dancing on Sunday, Aug. 30 during an anniversary party at Shawsheen Manor. On roll-call, voting in favor were Chairman Philip K. Allen, Paul W. Cronin and Roger W. Collins. Opposed were Robert A. Watters and William Stewart.

The board granted a request from the board of directors of Andover Council 1078, Knights of Columbus, for a change of address from 22 Post Office ave. to Osgood st., according to Chapter 180 of the General Laws.

The board voted to grant excavation permits to the Lawrence Gas company on Phillips st., at Farrar House, Phillips Academy, and to Mass. Electric Co. on Karleton cir., northerly from Porter rd.

Of three pole requests filed jointly by the Mass. Electric and the N.E.T. & T. Co., two were granted, one on the southerly side of Highland rd., 160 ft. from Heather dr., and the second on the southerly side of Lowell st. at a point 80 ft. westerly from the Lovejoy rd. line.

The board voted to take under advisement an order to take a view of a location on the southerly side of Lowell st., easterly from Lovejoy rd. A resident of that street objected.

In response to a memorandum from Chief of Police David L. Nicoll regarding special speed regulations in town, the selectmen voted to have Town Manager Richard J. Bowen request the State Department of Public Works Traffic Division to make a survey and give recommendations on the need for speed regulations in the town. Several residents at the meeting spoke of the speed violations they have observed and expressed special fears for the safety of children.

Sewer Project
Records Audit Scheduled

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen has been authorized by the selectmen to engage an auditor to perform an audit of the sewer project records. The manager told selectmen Monday evening that the town is paying 50 per cent of the cost and the Federal government the other half. He said 50 per cent of the government's contribution has been received; 40 per cent additional will be paid when the job has been completed; and the final 10 per cent will be paid when a satisfactory check has been made of the books by an accredited auditor. The town manager said that the final 10 per cent probably will not be received until the Spring of 1965. Selectman Robert A. Watters submitted the name of Harold Bowen of Andover as one who might be engaged to carry out the audit.

Edwin Perkins Marks 35 Years With Bell Lab.

EDWIN H. PERKINS

Edwin H. Perkins of Andover celebrated his 35th anniversary of service with Bell Laboratories this month. He is a supervisor in the short haul carrier systems department at the company's branch laboratory in North Andover.

Since joining Bell Laboratories in 1929 he has been engaged in development of transmission system components and circuits. For many years he was concerned with the theory and development of feedback amplifiers and regulating circuits for telephone wire and cable, and holds two patents in this field. In 1950 he became a supervisor and was in charge of design and development of the Type P carrier telephone systems for rural areas. This was the first Bell System carrier system to use transistors. For the past three years he has supervised repeater circuit design for short distance telephone carrier transmission and is currently preparing designs for a unit to handle nationwide dialing and data transmission.

Mr. Perkins received his B.S. degree in 1929 and the master's degree the following year from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he took the Bell System Cooperative Training Course. He is a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers and Kappa Eta Kappa, electrical engineering society.

Mr. Perkins is on the Retired List USAF Reserves with a rank of Lt. Col., having 30 years of reserve service and four years of active duty in World War II. He served as an electronic and communications specialist in Hq. AFSC, in Dayton, Ohio, and in the European Theatre with the 8th Air Force.

Mr. Perkins and his wife Ruth live at 64 Holt rd., with their two children, Edwina and Ralph. They have been residents of Andover for nine years.

He is a member of Charles C. Dame Masonic Lodge in Georgetown and a Past Master of Congregational Lodge #201, Bernardsville, N.J. He is also an Assistant Scout Master of local Troop 70 Boy Scouts of America, and a member of the Merrimack River U.S. Power Squadron.

CUSTER WILL

A son, Charles J. Custer, 38 Canterbury st., is the chief beneficiary of the $3,000 estate of Mrs. Katherine L. Custer who died July 20, according to her will filed in probate court at Salem. She gave $1,000 to her son in trust for the benefit of a nephew, Jay G. Dearleaf of Trenton, N.J. The rest of the estate goes to her son.

CO-OP LABELS — RED OR GREEN

Does the CO-OP urge its customers to buy the best — to buy its own top-quality Red Label brands? Not at all. It depends on the customer and the product.

For shoppers who wish to economize, we recommend the CO-OP Green Label as a wonderful buy for the money and just as nourishing as the top-quality Red Label.

Moreover, certain products are graded so high that our lower-priced Green Label is excellent in both flavor and appearance. Our Green Label pears will prove this.

Some products (such as corn) are not so super graded, and here Red Label may be a better buy for good quality.

For quality at a food price, ask Mary Angus. She knows all the fine points.

Trusts Board To Supervise Expenditure Of Towle Fund

Town Manager Richard J. Bowen was instructed by the board of selectmen Monday night to proceed with the establishment of a Board of Trusts for implementation of the terms of the bequest to the town of Andover by the late Margaret G. Towle.

The will was filed about a decade ago and has undergone considerable litigation since its terms were challenged.

The bequest to the town was for the aid of those not eligible for public welfare aid. The funds available under the will are in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

by: Paul Upson, R. Ph.

Despite the great strides in medicine in the last decade, a one-shot cancer cure isn't in the cards according to no less an authority than the chief of the cancer branch of the U. S. Public Health Service. A stumbling block in the serious search for a cure is the fact that there are between 100 and 150 different diseases in the category of cancer.

Many new drugs show promise but research has disclosed that a drug effective against one type of cancer is ineffective against another type of the dread disease. Heartening, however, is disclosure through research that some malignancy is caused by viruses. For many years viruses were excluded from study in cancer research in the belief that they had no connection with the disease.

In some quarters it might be heartening to know that prescriptions are filled quickly and surely at SHAW SHEEN PHARMACY, where quality and friendly service are our main stock in trade. Get acquainted soon at SHAW SHEEN PHARMACY, Shawsheen Square. THIS WEEK'S HOUSEHOLD HINT: Clean combs by soaking in 1 tablespoon of household ammonia and 3 parts warm water. Follow by washing in soap and water.

Town Manager Bowen suggested that the welfare agent could make recommendations and do the investigatory work since he runs into needy cases which are not eligible for public welfare.

He cited as a hypothetical case a child who might need special tutoring services which could not be provided by the public welfare department.

In answer to a question from Selectman Robert A. Watters, Manager Bowen said that the fund could not be used to erect a building or for any other town activity except as provided in the instrument.

The Board of Trusts will consist of a group of Andover residents who will serve as trustees of the fund. A number of names were suggested by individual selectmen as an aid to the town manager in establishing the group.

COOL, COOL sewer on Lowell st. (Route 133) near its junction with Argilla rd. was where these two husky workmen were standing Tuesday when the photographer looked down. The trench is from 10 to 15 feet deep and is only four to five feet wide with its supporting shoring. Short lengths of pipe are lowered by crane to the workmen who make the installation. (Bretts)

Sewer Project Moves Through West Parish

Installation of sewer lines under the Accelerated Public Works program has moved onto Lowell street and Shawsheen road this week. Workmen have begun installing lines on Lowell st. between Argilla rd. and Wild Rose dr., and also in the Shawsheen rd. area.

Detour routes have brought motorists through the Rolling Green development off Lowell st., while Shawsheen rd. users have been detoured down Lowell st. to Haverhill st.

JOSEPH GLOWACKI

Joseph Glowacki, 65, 16 Gray rd., a U. S. Government Inspector, died suddenly Aug. 12 while at work in Haverhill. He was stricken while inspecting leather at the Hoyt and Worthern Tannery, Railroad st., Bradford. Death was attributed to a coronary thrombosis.

A native of Lawrence, the deceased had been a resident of Andover for the past 53 years. He was an attendant of Holy Trinity Church, Lawrence.

He is survived by three sisters, Eva, wife of William Dobzelecki of Peabody; Blanche, wife of Charles Johnston and Anne, wife of Charles Simpson, both of Andover; a brother Stanley of Manchester, Conn., and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held Aug. 14 from the Lundgren Funeral Home with a high Mass of requiem in Holy Trinity Church at 9 a.m. Burial was in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, Lawrence.

A delegation from the Boston Army Base attended the funeral.

MEET IN CAPITAL - For Congressman F. Bradford Morse and Korean student Jimmy Leigh, this week's meeting in Congressman Morse's Washington office was the climax of a long acquaintance. Jimmy has been in the United States to have surgery performed at Massachusetts General Hospital to relieve his severe arthritic condition. The Congressman had arranged to have Jimmy come to Boston by Air Force jet and he has been staying with a number of families in the Andover area. The funds for Jimmy's expenses while in Massachusetts were raised by the Pilgrim Fellowship of the South Church. Jimmy is scheduled to return to Korea later this month, but wanted to see the Nation's Capitol and meet the Congressman before he left. He was accompanied to Washington by Rev. Richard Streeter and Dana Chapman and Bruce Anderson, officers of the PF group. Here they are shown as Congressman Morse presents Jimmy with a United States Flag that had been flown over the U.S. Capitol building on the morning of his visit.

School Dress Requirements Are Outlined

To assist parents of high school children in the selection of school wear, the following dress requirements are given by Andover High School officials.

Boys
Shirts are to be made of a woven fabric, not knitted and they must be the type that can be tucked into trousers. Tight trousers or singerees of any type or color are prohibited. Neckties are part of school dress from November through March. Boys are expected to wear appropriate and presentable footwear.

Girls
Extremes in clothing are not acceptable and good taste is always expected. Skirts are to be no shorter than the middle of the knee. Appropriate and presentable footwear should be worn.

Land Lease Request Tabled

A request from Woodworth Motors Inc., Shawsheen square to lease from the town a small parking area of approximately 300 feet along the Shawsheen river bank on Riverina rd., northerly from Haverhill st., was before the selectmen Monday evening.

In his communication to the town manager, C. P. Woodworth said that there was an urgent need for the space so as to provide parking facilities for the garage and office building at the corner of Haverhill st. and Riverina rd. He offered to pay an annual rental of $300 and to remove the snow in the winter.

When Selectman Roger W. Collins inquired if it was legal for the town to lease the land, the board voted unanimously to table the matter until an opinion is obtained from town counsel.

Townsmen Editorial Thoughts

Relief In Sight

The Selectmen made it quite clear during the past week that there will be changes made in the operation of gravel pits in Andover.

They also promised that there would be much tighter control over the truckers who haul gravel from the pits for Route 495 construction.

Town Manager Bowen discussed the subject with the five selectmen during an informal session a week ago. He said that the present regulations are too casual and need to be given teeth so that they can be enforced.

Much stricter inspection of gravel pit operations will be undertaken once the new rules and regulations have been formulated. The board is now in the process of writing the new code and this is expected to be announced before the end of the month.

Town Manager Bowen is in favor of having an inspector of gravel pits, and suggested to the board that the town electrical inspector, now employed on a part time basis, might take on the additional duties.

The town manager feels that there are three general areas in which conditions may be improved.

He cited the nuisance problem, the dust, noise, spillage and speeding trucks. Next he pointed to a need for good engineering practices so that the land is properly graded as the gravel removal goes along. And thirdly, there must be esthetic considerations so that the countryside is returned to an attractive state when the gravel operations have come to an end.

Gravel pit operators must post bonds before getting a permit. This assures that the areas will be beautified upon closing down.

If the operators do not perform this chore in a reasonable time, the town can use the escrow fund to have the work done under private contract.

A number of residents of the Argilla rd. area were in attendance at Monday night's meeting of the selectmen. They made it clear that they were fed up with the speeding trucks, the constant noise and the clouds of dust.

They were assured that relief is not far off. Under the new regulations, the routes to be used by the trucks will be established by the selectmen and there will be firm opening and closing hours for operation of the pits.

It has been a long, hot summer and the inconveniences caused throughout the area by construction of the new inter-state highway have tried the patience of many.

The selectmen and town manager now appear to be well on the way to bringing about a much needed improvement in gravel pit operations here.

Possible Solution

One of the first problems to face Town Manager Bowen when he arrived in Andover was the condition of the Shawsheen river in Ballardvale.

River st. residents went to the Town House to protest the duck weed, algae and other vegetation which has grown to such an extent that the river's flow is impeded, fish in the river die and the smell is anything but pleasant.

Some Ballardvale residents place the blame for the situation on the operations of the Reichhold Chemical Co., Lowell Jct. rd., plastics manufacturing plant.

Reichhold officials contend that their method of waste disposal prevents chemical substances from going into the river, except by accident which they say is seldom.

Town Manager Bowen promised to make a complete investigation of the conditions and enlisted the aid of the town's Conservation Committee which held its initial meeting on the matter Monday night.

Meanwhile, at Foster's pond, a couple of residents there have taken the initiative on their own to rid a cove area of the overgrowth of aquatic weeds which is spoiling their beaches.

Mrs. C. Palmer Chase and Thomas McGrath, owners of property abutting the pond engaged the services of a Boston chemical firm.

A biologist found that there were seven varieties of weeds growing along the cove. A week ago Monday, a chemical application was applied. This solution is harmless to fish and to humans. Additional applications will be made in September and October.

The improvement in conditions became apparent at once, according to the Foster's pond residents. The weeds began to disintegrate.

Mrs. Chase said that she expects by next spring that the waters of the cove will be free of weed growth and will be restored to the condition of several years ago.

The Conservation Committee might include a look-see at the Foster's pond operation as part of its investigation of the Shawsheen river problem.

Memorial Hall Library

Coming Events

AUGUST

20 Summer reading club meets, 2-3 p.m.
22 Library closed Saturdays through August.

Summer Hours

The Memorial Hall Library is open daily Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., for the main reading room. The Children's room is open on those days from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2-5 p.m. Both departments are closed Saturdays.

The branch room in Ballardvale is open Mondays and Thursdays from 2-5 and 6-8, the usual winter hours.

Summer Reading Club

Each Thursday afternoon from 2-3 o'clock members of the Summer Reading Club for boys and girls meet at the library for their book report program, always "topped off" with an entertainment of some sort. Young readers are allowed to tell about two books at a time and receive book stickers for each book read.

Over 200 young people are enrolled in the club and are actively reading from their special book-lists. The weekly meetings will continue through Thursday, August 27. Any boy or girl who has been away in July may still join the group. Ask at the desk in the Children's room for complete information.

Vacation Books

A small collection of books especially chosen for summer reading may be seen at the library. Some of the older favorites that have been on the busy list are now free for the fortunate one who missed them. Many persons pick up a familiar title and find the same pleasure in re-reading an earlier publication for a second time. Now is the month of more leisure, poetry and plays coming into their own. A few die-hard hobbyists are using the painting and sketching, design and gardening, bowling and boating titles. All books not in special demand are being loaned for the summer period, due September 15, on request of the borrower.

On Vacation

Mrs. Eleanor Plummer of the library staff is enjoying her annual vacation.

Shell Exhibit

In the Children's room an interesting exhibit of unusual shells has been arranged in the display case. Books about the sea, its wealth of products, its shores, sponges, shells, fish, etc. have been collected to further the reader's information.

New Books

Several recent non-fiction titles purchased by the library have unusual appeal for the serious reader, such as "Power At The Pentagon", by Jack Raymond. The author states that defense absorbs nearly one tenth of total U. S. production of goods and services and a similar percentage of the labor force. "The Cart And The Horse" by Louis Kronenberger shows American life today, its urban and suburban culture, its social attitudes, manners and ambitions. "The Year Of The Gorilla" by G. B. Schaller paints the doomed picture of African wild life. The National Conference on Religion And Race has published a book "Race: Challenge To Religion", a collection of essays with an appeal to the conscience; and Christian Delman has written a delightful study "The Great Shakespeare Jubilee" of the year 1769, when Garrick lost 2000 pounds by putting on a disaster-ravaged Jubilee for the bard. Every citizen could be interested in "Trial By Jury" of Samuel McCart, a book on the workings of a jury trial. Two million Americans sit as jurors each year! After Pearl Harbor, Roosevelt sent our present President Johnson to the Southwest Pacific for a true story of the situation there. Here is the story "The Mission", written by Martin Caidin. A team of naturalists in Charleston, South Carolina made a study that covers 75 miles inland from the Atlantic, and have published it under the title, "Carolina Low Country Impressions." The book is illustrated with beautiful drawings by John Henry Dick. Less serious but attractive are two books on Maine - "State of Maine" by Louise D. Rich, history from the geological formation to Margaret Chase Smith, and "Roots In The Rock", a book by artist Charles Child, who built a home for his family on the Maine Coast. All books mentioned here are ready for circulation.

Board Honors George Winslow

The memory of the late Town Clerk George H. Winslow was honored at the meeting of the board of selectmen Monday evening.

The five selectmen signed a resolution which will be spread on the records. Those at the meeting then stood for a minute of silence in memory of the highly esteemed town official who died Aug. 5. The resolution read at the meeting follows:

Whereas George H. Winslow served the Town of Andover as Town Clerk from 1930 to 1960 and, whereas his service was informed, dedicated and selfless and conducted with unhesitant and genial efficiency

And, whereas by his death on August 5, 1964, the Town of Andover lost an old and valued friend

Be It Resolved and spread upon the records of this meeting of the Board of Selectmen of Andover, Massachusetts, on this the Seventeenth day of August, 1964, that the Town of Andover notes the passing of George H. Winslow with deepest regret and its citizens extend their heartfelt sympathy to his widow and daughters.

Board of Selectmen Philip K. Allen, William Stewart, Paul Cronin, Robert A. Watters and Roger W. Collins.

Teachers Take Special Course

Mrs. Edward O'Hagen and Mrs. Arthur Minzner, members of the Sanborn School faculty, are among the 120 teachers enrolled in a mathematics workshop being held this week in Natick. Special emphasis is being placed on the technique of teaching with the use of Cuisenaire Rods.

DRIVER INJURED

Dora Dandretta, 38 Bancroft rd., was reported as injured to Lawrence police Aug. 8 in an accident involving her car and one operated by Constance Faust, 6 Pinecrest rd., which occurred at the junction of Franklin and Bradford sts., Lawrence.

Down the Years with The Townsman

75 Years Ago - August, 1889

Professor Coy who was offered the principalship of Phillips Exeter Academy has declined and will continue to teach Greek at Andover Academy.

Officer Dugan had an exciting time with a tramp, Charles Thwing found the tramp asleep in his shed and asked the stranger to leave. The tramp refused to be disturbed and drew a knife to show he was serious. Thwing called officer Dugan who was forced to subdue the stranger and take him to the station.

Joseph Scott's sunflower fence is admired and is very aesthetic.

Alice M. Bell and Helen Curran gave a birthday party on the lawn. Many of their schoolmates attended and had an enjoyable afternoon of games.

50 Years Ago - August, 1914

The remodeling of the Tyler property at the corner of Chestnut and Central sts. to put it in shape for the needs of the new school connected with St. Augustine's church has been practically completed.

The 6 o'clock Reading-bound street car split the switch and went off the track at the Hidden rd. turnout, making the passengers half an hour late for their destinations.

Daniel Hartigan of the Stacey pharmacy is spending a week at Oak Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Bradford are enjoying an auto trip through Vermont.

25 Years Ago - August, 1939

Henry E. Miller, for 23 years in the shoe business, has sold out to William F. Reinhold. Miller started in business on Bartlett street.

Rural delivery man Joseph Levi's horse ran away on North Main st. and was captured by police.

Rev. Charles A. Butterfield will terminate his services as pastor of the Union Congregational church in Ballardvale in September. He will become a regional director of the church's committee on China Relief.

The assessors report $147,000 increase in valuation, but the tax rate is still expected to go up to $30 for the first time in the town's history.

Central, Shawsheen and Ballardvale playgrounds are having their annual night carnivals. Many attractive articles are on sale at the gaily decorated booths.

10 Years Ago - August, 1954

Directors of the Andover Red Cross decided unanimously that the chapter can best continue to serve the needs of the community this year by retaining its present independent financial status and not joining the newly formed United Fund in Lawrence.

Three teachers, and a librarian for the senior and junior high schools, were elected by the school committee. The members discussed the proposed new high school.

The Andover Braves won the championship of the City League by defeating St. Patrick's Seniors 4-1 at the Andover playstead. Larry Higgins allowed the visitors only one hit.

A serious depletion of blood supplies in the area has caused the hospitals and Red Cross chapters to adopt new regulations for the use of blood.

Mrs. James MacCord was honored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars post for 10 years of service to the sale of Buddy Poppies for the benefit of hospitalized veterans.

OPEN HOUSE

On last Wednesday evening, Aug. 12, Mrs. Charles Flanagan of Post st. held Open House in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Cooper of Granger, Iowa who were visiting in the vicinity. The following friends and relatives enjoyed a social hour together Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Garside, William Bennett, Mrs. Esther Bennett all of Tewksbury, Mrs. Joseph Carruthers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellars, Mrs. G. Gravel Pit Action Held In Abeyance

At Monday night's selectmen's meeting, Selectman William Stewart moved that action on the granting of a gravel pit permit to Sidney P. White for an operation on Argilla rd. be held in abeyance until a nearby pit operated by the J. F. White company is closed. The White firm, building a section of Route 495 here, has three gravel pits in operation at present. The pit which is to be closed soon is known as the Reed pit. A number of West Parish residents attended the meeting and several of them expressed their opinions on gravel pits in general and the Argilla rd. pits in particular.

They charged that the noise was unbearable, the speeding trucks and extreme hazard to children and other motorists; that the continual dust cloud and the spillage on the streets had gone on long enough. Chairman Philip K. Allen advised that the board is now working on a new set of gravel pit rules and regulations which will be announced shortly.

Hearings on gravel pit applications will be held Sept. 14. Chairman Allen said that the permits granted then would be under the conditions of the new regulations. After Oct. 1, the Selectmen will regulate the routes that trucks carrying gravel may travel in the town, will set up times during which the pits may be operated, and will call for the covering of trucks if this is necessary.

JOHNSON - GRANGE

Miss Gail Louise Grange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Douglass Grange, 15 Shipman rd, became the bride of Lynn Frank Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn L. Johnson, 2 West In., Summit, N. J., formerly of Andover, at a 2 p.m. ceremony Aug. 15 at South Church, Rev. Frederick B. Noss, pastor, officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The altar of the church was decorated with daisies, roses and gladioli for the occasion.

The bride was attired in a white silk Ottoman fashioned with fitted satin bodice, scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her bell-shaped skirt was accented with a bow at the waistline and satin-covered buttons down the center, terminating in a chapel-length train. Her three-tiered silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of white pleated satin topped with a butterfly bow. She carried a colonial bouquet of daisies.

Miss Susan Grange of Andover was her sister's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids included Miss Abbie-Jane Poore of Andover, Miss Leslie Spencer of West Hartford, Conn., Miss Mary Lou Colby of Tarriffville, Conn., and Miss Judith Johnson, of Summit, N. J., sister of the bridegroom. Serving as flower girl was Miss Sheila Fitzgerald of Beverly Farms. She carried a basket of daisies and wore white daisies in her hair.

The attendants were gownned in identical street-length dresses of buttercup yellow linen highlighted with yellow rose appliques on the sleeves and green velvet sashes at the waistline. Their skirts were dome-shaped and softly pleated at the waist. All wore matching green velvet bows in their hair and wore green shoes.

The maid of honor carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses and ivy. The other attendants carried colonial bouquets of the same flowers.

Bruce Johnson of Summit, N. J., brother of the bridegroom, was best man, Donald Anderson and William Turner both of Andover, John Martens of Long Island, N.Y., and Alan Griffith of Pound Ridge, N. Y. were ushers. Douglas Grange, brother of the bride, was a junior usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Grange chose a pale blue jacket dress of raw silk adorned with white lace embroidery. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a sea-foam green crystal peau de soie sheath with a jacket of Chantilly lace and matching accessories. Her corsage consisted of yellow roses and Chantilly lace.

Mrs. William Black of Darien, Conn., registered guests from the local area, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Connecticut and Iowa at the reception held at the Lanam Club.

The bride is a graduate of Andover High School and was graduated in 1963 from Lasell Junior College. Mr. Johnson, a 1964 graduate of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., is employed at Sylvania Electric Company, Exeter, N. H.

After a wedding trip to Maine, the couple will reside at 10 Bow st., Exeter, N. H.

MCANERN - NICOLL

At a candlelight ceremony Aug. 8 at 7 p.m. in Free Christian Church, Miss Margaret A. Nicoll, daughter of Alfred D. Nicoll, 12 Salem st., became the bride of Richard G. McAnern, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. McAnern, 145 Hidden rd. Rev. J. Allyn Bradford, pastor, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Baskets of white gladioli and pink asters decorated the church for the occasion, with the pews marked by white satin bridal bows. David Reynolds was the soloist.

The bride was attired in a floor-length embroidered silk organza gown fashioned with a scalloped neckline, bridal sleeves, and bouffant skirt with Watteau backpanel adorned with scalloped embroidery and a chapel train. A seed pearl crown held her two-tier French silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid surrounded by pink babies' breath.

The maid of honor, Miss Jean Porter of Boston, wore a floor-length blush pink taffeta gown styled with a portrait neckline, short sleeves, bow at the back of the waistline, and bell-shaped skirt. Her nose veil was caught to a matching flowered headpiece. She carried a basket of light and deep pink asters highlighted with white babies' breath.

Bridesmaids, Miss Joan Mc-Carthy and Miss Jane Beaven, both of Andover, and Miss Judith Poole of Methuen, wore candy pink tulle gowns styled demurely with that of the maid of honor.
They wore matching flowered headpieces with nose veils and carried baskets of light and deep pink asters highlighted with white babies' breath.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a sapphire blue crepe and satin sheath and white lace accessories. Her handbag was adorned with a corsage of light and deep pink asters.

Donald McAnern of West Hartford, Conn., was his brother's best man. Serving as ushers were David G. McAnern of Andover, also a brother of the bridegroom, Frank S. Minasian of Worcester, and Richard A. Morrison of Pawtucket, R.I.

A reception was held at the Rolling Green Motor Inn where Miss Diana Nicoll of Andover, a cousin of the bride, registered guests from Greater Lawrence,
New York, Connecticut, South
Portland and Cape Elizabeth, Me.,
Salem, N. H., Pawtucket, R. I., Springfield, West Springfield, Boston, East Longmeadow, Amherst, Hingham and Worcester.

For her wedding trip to Lake Champlain, Vermont, and upper state New York, Mrs. McAnern chose a white and navy blue print sheer sheath styled with long sleeves and ruffled neckline and cuffs. She wore navy blue accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Upon return, the couple will reside at 700 Washington Park dr.
The bride, a graduate of Andover High School, received her Bachelor's degree in education from Lowell State College. She is a second grade teacher at the Doctor Soule School, Salem, N.H.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Pinchard High School, received his Bachelor's degree in business administration from Clark University, Worcester, where he was a member of Kappa Phi fraternity.

He is employed at Prudential Insurance Company of America.

POLGREEN - ADAMS

Miss Patricia Ann Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quincy Adams, 23 Canterbury st., was married Aug. 15 to Frederick Charles Polgreen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Polgreen, 52 Chestnut st., at a 1 p.m. ceremony at St. Augustine's Church.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Vincent J. Mackay of St.
Cecelia's Church, Back Bay, Boston. It was an especially joyous occasion for the bride's parents for it was Father Mackay who married them on April 27, 1940.

Jo Ann Samra was the soloist.
The decorations in the church were pink rhubrum lilies and stock.

The bride was attired in a peau de soie gown fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice and tapered bridal sleeves, an Empire waist above a semi-controlled skirt, ending in a cathedral train adorned at the back waist with an obi sash and a self fabric cabuchon rose. A regal coronet of pearlized orange blossoms held her tiered imported pure silk illusion veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of Eucharist lilies and shell-pink roses with ivy.

Miss Martha Jane Adams, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length Nile green taffeta gown styled with a portrait neckline, cap sleeves, and a frosted green cummerbund and sash above a semi-full skirt. A Dior bow held her face veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rhubrum lilies, roses and ivy.

Bridesmaids, Miss Mary Jo
Owens of New Jersey, Miss Shirley Ingalls of Nahant, Miss Beverly Bonnell of Winchester, Miss Virginia Bateman of Woburn and Miss Jo Ann Samara of Andover, were similarly outfitted in frosted green taffeta and Nile. They wore matching Dior bows with face veils and carried bouquets of pink rhubrum
lilies, roses and ivy.

For her daughter's wedding,
Mrs. Adams chose a Madonna blue afternoon dress fashioned with a Chantilly lace bodice over a silk organza sheath skirt, a blue tulle pouf hat, matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a turquoise silk cocktail dress with a sculptured neckline, side panels, sheath skirt and a turquoise petal hat adorned with pearls and veiling. She wore a pink orchid corsage.

John Aubrey Polgreen Jr., of Ohio was his brother's best man.
Serving as ushers were John Q.
Adams, a brother of the bride, Theodore Boudreau, both of Andover, Victor Tidlund of East Longmeadow, and A. William Kochanczyk.

A reception was held at the Merrimack Valley Motor Inn,
North Andover, with guests attending from Greater Lawrence, Indiana, Columbus, Ohio, Falls
Church, Va., Bainbridge, Md., Cranston, R. I., Manchester, Amherst, Kingston, Seabrook and Rye

Beach, N. H., and Cohasset.

After a wedding trip to the Poconos Mountains, Penna., the couple will reside at 22 Hidden rd.

The bride, a graduate of Andover
High School, received her Bachelor's degree from the University of Massachusetts. She attended Boston College Graduate School and is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, National Honor Society.

Mr. Polgreen, also a graduate of Andover High School, attended Holderness Academy and received his Bachelor's degree from Springfield College. He is studying for his Master of Education degree at Salem State College. He is a member of Alpha Omega fraternity and the Knights of Columbus.

PITFALLS FOR A "BUREAUCRAT"

There's a kind of "bureaucrat" at large . . . the one who packs bedding, linens and towels into bureau drawers when moving from one house to another.

Overloading bureau drawers risks damage of expensive furniture, points out Jean Paul Charron, moving consultant of the Begley-Aero Mayflower Transit Co. "It's alright to put a pillow or two in the drawer," advises Mr. Charron, "but only if it fits in comfortably. Avoid stuffing them in".

Bedding is best packed in a large, sturdy carton lined with white tissue paper. Folded sheets, pillow cases and towels carefully placed in this container will be ready for use upon arrival at your new home.

That Distinctive Look

Lighting can (among other things) warm the outdoors, grow plants, guide aircraft, ease your aches and pains, and light your home. You can add that distinctive look to any room of your home by purchasing the necessary lighting supplies at the Mid City Store, 92 Broadway, Lawrence. Here, they have a wide assortment of light fixtures ready to beautify your home and make your life easier. Just walk right in and browse, if you like. Get ideas from the personable salesmen on how to make your home more comfortable and ready to suit your needs better.

Also, you can obtain a wide selection of artist supplies for the beginner or the expert painter. You will find painting a most relaxing way to appreciate the beauty of nature. Drop in and see Sam DiPrima at 92 Broadway, Lawrence and get the information you need to get started in pursuing this wonderful hobby. They have in stock oils, water, charcoal, caseins, designers colors, and many other items . . . including easy to follow instruction books on how to get the best results ever. Well, what are you waiting for . . . come on down or give us a call at 688-1848.

Bowl In Comfort

Don't let summer — sizzle melt your desire for fun and sport. There's one activity that's not affected by the temperature — bowling. The Andover Recreation, located at 34 Park Street, Andover, is delightfully air conditioned with 15 lanes for your convenience.

Bowling always is cool fun no matter what the weather, temperature, or humidity. Try bowling soon . . . you will find it is easy to learn and fun right from the start! You will stay trim and cool too!

Make it a habit to take at least one night off a week, and spend it with fun and enjoyment at the Andover Recreation.

Building Supplies

Every builder, contractor, and home owner in the Merrimack Valley should get acquainted with the superior building supplies offered by the Jackson Lumber Company, 10 Jackson Street, Lawrence.

This is a one-stop drive-in building supply center. The stock includes lumber, building materials, roofing, insulation, doors, windows, hardware, and paints.

This is an excellent place for the contractor or the individual planning new home construction or remodeling to buy all their needs. The salesmen are familiar with building practices and can help you select just the right materials for any job — large or small. They are also happy to offer sound advice on any problems. You are sure to like the friendly way of doing business that this concern has made its mode of operation over the years.

Cleaning Experts

The Supreme Cleaners, at Shawseene Plaza Shopping Center, is a well operated concern that has been taking care of the cleaning problems of local residents for a number of years in an admirable manner.

Expert employees remove stubborn stains from your most valuable garments efficiently. Also, pressing is done on the most modern and up-to-date machinery. They will also take care of your repairing and alterations so when you receive your garments, they will be almost new again! You will also find they will last you longer with our careful and expert handling and don't forget to bring your shirts, we launder them to perfection.

This is one concern where you can call about any personal cleaning problem, for, at all times, Supreme Cleaners has your interest at heart.

Technical Courses Popular

In recent years many graduates from local high schools have taken advantage of specialized technical training at the Essex Agricultural & Technical Institute in Danvers.
Formerly the Essex County Agricultural School, the Institute now offers comprehensive courses in all phases of agricultural and horticultural sciences and business.

These courses lead toward supervisory, managerial and technical positions in all areas of agricultural technology and business, horticultural technology and related fields. These include food inspection and marketing, conservation and wildlife and forestry and recreation. Students who are especially interested in natural sciences find the programs offered attractive and stimulating. The training also prepares them for careers in specialized fields, such as veterinary science and biological laboratory services.

The Institute offers two-year courses of study which provide for classroom and laboratory instruction and on-the-job practice.
The latter is an opportunity for students to earn the necessary funds to continue their education.
All students start classes in September and continue until April, during which time they complete two semesters of classroom work, Starting in April and carrying on until the following September, they work with approved employers in their chosen career fields.

The facilities of the Institute are utilized to give students valuable practical experience on the 156 acre campus that include several horticultural enterprises and the laboratories established on the Institute property.

The various educational courses and programs offered at the Technical Institute are free of charge to Essex County residents.

Shade Trees
In Danger
From Storms

This is the time of year shade trees should be storm-proofed to minimize danger of breakage and damage when autumn storms, particularly hurricanes, strike.

Dr. Philip L. Rusden suggests branch spacing and thinning of foliage to permit heavy winds to pass through a tree. Trees with dense crowns are often blown over during angry storms.

Overly tall trees can be headed back 10 to 15 feet or more by proper pruning. Long, heavy limbs can be shortened. Pruning also eliminates weak, dying and dangerous limbs overhanging house, garage, walk, drive or utility lines.

Storm damage can also be alleviated by cabling and bracing weak crotches and limbs. And any cavity should be cleaned out and properly treated to add to structural strength.

Long range, a tree's anchorage or root system can be improved by regular feeding, encouraging roots to grow deeper in the soil.

Trees growing in poor soils and those whose root systems have been damaged by construction of sidewalks and roads are always in danger of being blown over or ripped by violent storms. That is why street trees are frequently damaged by wind.

Some trees, depending upon size, can be saved after they have been blown over if root damage is not too great. Pulled back, they can be guyed by cables and ropes avoiding injury to the bark. Soil on the uprooted side should be excavated and replaced with care to restore the roots properly.

Organ Recitals
At Methuen

The ninth Wednesday evening Methuen Memorial Music Hall organ recital of the 1964 Summer Season presents Robert Town on Aug. 26.

Born in Wisconsin, he is now organist and choir director at St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth where he is presently preparing for a Doctor of Musical Arts degree at the University of Michigan.

Town has studied organ with David Craighead, Eastman School, and Arthur Poister, Syracuse University.

In addition to other recitals he was winner of the Boston Symphony Orchestra's 1963 Young Artist's Competition and played in the Organ Concert Series there last spring.

Wednesday evening's program includes: Concerto in A Minor (after Vivaldi) Allegro - Adagio - J. S. Bach; Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major - J. S. Bach; Choral No. 2 in B Minor - Cesar Franck; Deuxieme Fantaisie - Jehan Alain; Triptyque, Opus 51 (1957) - Chaconne - Musette - Dithyrambe - Marcel Dupre.

On Sept. 2, Richard Grant of Brookline, recently moved to New York, will play at Methuen.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

The 50th Anniversary of the Hawthorn Club which was formed in Aug. 1914 was held on Wednesday Aug. 12 at Flagstones in Newington, N. H. A very delicious dinner was served at 1 p.m. and following this the group enjoyed a visit to the Fuller Gardens in No. Hampton, N. H. Four members of the original group that formed the club were in attendance namely: Mrs. Ada Brown, Mrs. G. R. Abbott, Mrs. Franklin Ellis and Mrs. Arthur Lewis. The club still meets every week (weather permitting) and although the membership has changed during the years there are now seven who enjoy getting together for a social evening. Many happy times have been held during the years, weddings, births, parties all have shared in the fun. The members today are, Mrs. G. R. Abbott, Mrs. Ada Brown, Mrs. Franklin Ellis, Mrs. William Douthy, Mrs. James Christie, Miss Mabel Marshall, and Mrs. Arthur Lewis.

Technical Courses
Popular

In recent years many graduates from local high schools have taken advantage of specialized technical training at the Essex Agricultural & Technical Institute in Danvers. Formerly the Essex County Agricultural School, the Institute now offers comprehensive courses in all phases of agricultural and horticultural sciences and business.

These courses lead toward supervisory, managerial and technical positions in all areas of agricultural technology and business, horticultural technology and related fields. These include food inspection and marketing, conservation and wildlife and forestry and recreation. Students who are especially interested in natural sciences find the programs offered attractive and stimulating. The training also prepares them for careers in specialized fields, such as veterinary science and biological laboratory services.

The Institute offers two-year courses of study which provide for classroom and laboratory instruction and on-the-job practice. The latter is an opportunity for students to earn the necessary funds to continue their education. All students start classes in September and continue until April, during which time they complete two semesters of classroom work. Starting in April and carrying on until the following September, they work with approved employers in their chosen career fields.

The facilities of the Institute are utilized to give students valuable practical experience on the 155 acre campus that include several horticultural enterprises and the laboratories established on the Institute property.

The various educational courses and programs offered at the Technical Institute are free of charge to Essex County residents.

Town Will Dispose Of Bradlee Property

The board of selectmen Monday night voted to instruct Town Manager Richard J. Bowen to proceed with preparations for the sale of the Bradlee School property.

The three-story building was erected in 1889 and has an assessors valuation of $56,300 on the building and $4,600 on the one and one-half acre of land. Town Manager Bowen said its replacement price at the present time was $124,000.

On motion of Selectman Paul W. Cronin, the board voted unanimously to authorize the town manager to establish an upset (minimum) acceptable price of $57,000 for the property, with the zoning rules for residential property to prevail and that the board holds the right to reject any or all bids.

The procedure to be established by the manager will call for the bids to be opened at a meeting of the board of selectmen.

Pomp's Pond Band Concert Sunday

A band concert will be held at Pomp's pond Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. William B. Russell's Concert Band will provide the music.

The concert is being given by the Pomp's pond staff in cooperation with the Lawrence musicians union. It is made possible through a grant from the Music Performance Trust Fund of the Recording Industries of New York.

A second band concert is planned for Sunday, Aug. 30 when the annual Red Cross Day will be observed. Following the concert there will be rescue demonstrations by the junior and senior life guard groups; swimming exhibitions by the various classes; rescue demonstrations by the life guard staff; demonstration by a group of four and five year old children who learned to swim this year; awarding of pins, badges and certificates; diving exhibition by Lifeguard Bob Cargill and a tribute to the 50th anniversary year of the Red Cross.

Patrolman Suspended For Two Weeks

Andover Police Department Patrolman Russell H. Berthel has been notified by the town manager that his reinstatement would be subject to the approval of the state Civil Service director.

The notification, considered a supplement to Town Manager Richard J. Bowen's decision to suspend the patrolman for two weeks beginning last Monday, was hand-carried to Berthel by Sgt. Inspector Robert V. Deyermund. Atty. Maurice S. Close, Berthel's counsel, said the supplement stated that Bowen would submit necessary forms to Civil Service requesting the patrolman's reinstatement on Monday, Aug. 31. Approval by Civil Service of reinstatement of a police officer is required under Chapter 31, section 43F of the General Laws.

Town Manager Bowen suspended Berthel, a veteran of nine years on the force, after a closed door hearing last Wednesday.

On Monday, Berthel's counsel said that his client would not appeal his two weeks suspension to the civil service commission.

Atty. Close said that no useful purpose would be served and that Officer Berthel felt he had been vindicated because most of the charges were dropped. Dropped were charges of insubordination and neglect of duty. The other charge was conduct unbecoming an officer.

Atty. Close said that Patrolman Berthel is now anxious to get back to his job.

School kids still kick about a little homework, while mother has to do homework the year around.
